omission to give information etc may perhaps be raised to Rs 10/ so as to be in accordance with section 18 of Regn III of 1918

ISD 9/11

19 Regn III of 1918 applies only to areas other than municipalities. Registration of births & deaths therefore in a minor municipality has to be governed only by rules under Sec 106 (2) n of Regn X of 1933.

163 Law

20 Rule 5 seems to require slight alteration As it is, it is not clear when a person who is required under the rule to give information in default of some other, incurs the penalty for not giving the required information A proviso on the lines of the first proviso to sec 8 of Regn III of 1918 has to be inserted in the rules

21 Again rules as worded imposes a duty on the mother to give the reqd information within one week after the day of birth. This appears to be impracticable for obvious reasons and apparently it is why the mother is not mentioned in Section 8 of Regn III of 1918 except in the case of an illegitimate child provided for in proviso 2 to the said sec^n. Even here however the Regulation wisely allows a period of two weeks within which the information may be given

2 I would therefore suggest the entire rules being substituted by sec 8 of the Regulation-

3 Rahbabas may The language of rule 6 may, do, be replaced by that used in sec 10 of Reg III of 1918, which is more clear & definite in many respects

4 In cases of births not covered by rules & deaths not covered by rule 6, some provision on the lines of Secs 9 & 11 may perhaps be made

5 In other respects the rules proposed are all right & may be adopted
